

Mysteries of Light

When Pope John Paul II created the Mysteries of Light, he accounted for the years of Jesus' public life to be reflected upon when saying the Rosary. These "Luminous Mysteries" are used on Thursdays. Along with the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries, they present a complete picture of Jesus' journey.

Write the missing Mysteries for the Joyful, Luminous, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries on the lines at the left. Choose from those given at the right to complete a time line of Jesus' life.
